If, after evaluating the price analyses determines that the Bidder has substantially failed to demonstrate its capability to deliver the contract at the offered price, the Bid/ Proposal (L1) will be rejected and evaluate the next higher bidder (and so on), at his/ their own quoted rate (and not by counteroffering rate of ALB), for award of contract.

If the price of new L1 bidder (after rejection of original L1 bidder) is considered high, then the price justification may be called from the bidder. If the price justification is not acceptable, then either negotiations or reissue of tender for the identical or similar Services may be considered. TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

Section-5: Technical Specifications

1.0 General specifications;

The work will be Construction of Recharge Shaft (Bore Hole) for facilitating ground water recharge to aquifer system occurring beneath the earth surface by sinking of recharge dug well, Platform & Protection Box under state sector scheme of DoWR, Odisha. All the recharge shaft constructed, will be provided with metal protective Chamber with locking system for protection of recharge shaft. The design of typical recharge shaft is shown in Drawings attached.

1.1 A recharge shaft is necessarily a bore well or tube well, constructed to facilitate entry of water directly into the aquifer system existing beneath the ground surface in order to improve the ground water level and ground water quality of the area. The aquifer system occurs in rock fractures (in hard rock formation) or sandy layers (in alluvial formation) below a few meters of overburden from ground surface. Thus construction of recharge shaft will involve all the process which are involved in the construction of a bore hole inside a recharge dug well, construction of a RCC platform over the recharge dug well and provision of a metal Protection Chamber on the platform which will ensure protection of the structure.

1.2 The sites for constructions of recharge shaft have been identified and are listed in table annexed which will be handed over by the department upon signing of contract agreement.

1.3 Recharge shaft (Borehole) in All Types of formations:

1.3.1 The list of bore hole sites, with depth are listed in the statement appended with locations. The drawing indicating typical sections of the structures is shown as in Drawing . The process of construction of recharge shaft (borehole) involve drilling of pilot hole up to the depth of over burden decided by site in charge/ Field official, lowering and fixing of a casing pipe with strainer (if required) and/or drilling a naked bore hole up to the specified depth. The casing pipe used for over burden will be as per the specifications given.

1.3.2 The estimated depth (average depth 50 meter) of these recharge shaft, have been fixed depending on the existing water level behavior of the area and the probable depth of occurrence of aquifer system in the areas around the location. Construction of one recharge shaft will include sinking of one dug well, drilling of one Bore hole inside a sunked recharge dug well involving all the process as stated in 1.3.0 in one continuous stretch beginning from drilling to fixing of a well cap, one platform and fixing one metal protection box around the recharge shaft. Therefore, once the contractor brings the drilling rig to the site, he will complete the construction of recharge shaft in one continuous process of drilling, pipe lowering, gravel packing etc. up to the fixing of the well cap. The contractor will immediately make arrangement for compressor and start developing the drilled bore hole till the sand free water discharge is ascertained by the Site In-charge/ Field official. Part work of the construction of recharge shaft is not allowed.

1.3.3 The contractor will deploy trained and experienced driller, skilled, strong and experienced drilling labours for drilling of Bore hole so that the work do not hamper. The contractor will deploy trained rig driver who can drive the rig clearly and safely and make it reach to the drilling spot. The contractor will insure all the labours, drillers, drivers etc. for life as well for minor/major accidents and also for any disability caused due to minor/major accident. The contractor produces the necessary papers of insurance before actual work is commenced. Starting work will not be allowed till necessary verification of insurance has been done for labours (men/women or labour of any other form). The GWD officer in charge will check and certify the authenticity and validity of insurance papers. If any wrong information is stated or used in case of insurance the whole responsibility will be on the contractor.

1.3.4 The concerned Divisional Officer, GWD Division will give the depth of the Bore hole to the contractor in writing and the contractor will not drill more than the depth received from the concerned GWD Divisional Officer. The contractor will verify the exact location of the site and then deploy his rig. The contractor will clarify all doubts regarding the site location and depth and then deploy the rig for increasing or decreasing the depth of the Bore well with the site in charge/ Field Official will seek timely permission of the GWD Divisional Officer, and convey the decision to the driller, contractor or his representative.

1.3.5 The contractor will procure and stack material as per specification indicated. The contractor will clean the site, stack the material on site and then deploy the rig. The work will be carried out as per the specifications given in the following paragraphs. The contractor will keep working field book, rig log book, drilling log book, marked core/strata box, clear drinking water facility, first aid box, leak proof water tanker for drilling work and all necessary arrangements for smooth and healthy atmosphere at site. The contractor will keep perfect communication with site in-charge/field official and the GWD Divisional Officer. If any dispute arises decision of the GWD Divisional Officer concerned, will be final for contractor for the payment towards the works.

1.4 The contractor will deploy a suitable drilling rig at sites for completing the work successfully. The use of suitable compressor, casing pipe of requisite dia and depth as specified and complete the recharge shaft. piezometer (borehole) to be ensured by the contractor. The contractor will make arrangement of sufficient drilling rods, drilling bits for rocky terrain, compressor of specified capacity, casing pipes, strainer pipes, drilling mud etc. and complete the work perfectly.

1.5 Technical Specifications of Materials

Any rejected materials should be replaced by the contractor at his cost.

Contractor will see the drawings for construction. In this work following quality of materials are required to be used, which should be brought by the contractor at his cost and no any extra payment will be given for carting, loading, unloading, stacking etc for the materials to be used in the construction of recharge shaft at various locations.
