Appendix A: Scope of Work

1. Background

- 1.1 Brahmapur Municipal Corporation (BeMC) was constituted in the year 1948 as a Notified Area Council, then as a Municipality in the year 1867 and finally as a corporation in the year 2008. BeMC has undertaken pioneering work in various fields and perceives its role as principal provider of various municipal services to provide a better quality of life to the residents of Brahmapur. An area of 39.07 sq. K.M. is being covered by BeMC which is divided into 3 Zones and further subdivided into 42 wards.
- 1.2 At present the carcasses of dead animals are being disposed off in unscientific way in open and small animals are being dumped in the dumping ground. BeMC disposes carcasses of more than 3000 small animals every year. The carcasses are disposed of in open which petrify & produce obnoxious smell, invite vectors like dogs, cats and other birds cause nuisance and serious health hazard. Additionally, the proposed facility shall also benefit the Pet owners to bid farewell to their pets in humane and environmentally responsible manner. There is an urgent need to set up a carcass Incineration Centre for the scientific disposal of dead animals specifically street dogs, cats, pigs and pets.
- 1.3 In view of the above, BeMC in its endeavour to provide the citizen with hassle free cremation facility for stray animals and pets, proposes to invite private sector players for Supply, Installation, management and operation of Animal Carcass Incineration Plant (ACIP) at Brahmapur. ACIP shall be installed for treatment & disposal of various types of animal carcasses as per the latest guidelines of Central Pollution Control Board (CPCB), State Pollution Control Board, Odisha and other applicable rules. The Civil structures shall be built by BeMC and the facility shall be handed over to the Agency for installation of the Gas crematorium and its operation and maintenance thereof for a period of 5 years.
- 1.4 LPG Based Cremation System is the most modern cremation system. It is designed to carry out cremation process at a minimum interval of time & with the minimum use of fuel to ensure complete combustion. The system is incorporation with Modern pollution control system as per CPCB guidelines to ensure the removal of all the poisonous/ hazardous/Toxic gases/particles/smoke and odour. All the toxic gas and pollutants shall be scrubbed with water and discharges cool and clean gases to the environment through chimney.
- 1.5 This Request for Proposal (RFP) document is for the Designing, Installation, Operation, Maintenance and Management of Animal Carcass Incineration Plant (ACIP) at Brahmapur for a Period of Five (5) years (the “Project”).

2. Purpose of the Modern Crematorium system & Incinerator system:

- i. The process of corpse cremation generates numerous harmful air pollutants, including particulate matter (PM), SO₂, NO_x, CO, HCl, HF, NH₃, VOCs, heavy metals, polychlorinated dibenzo-p- dioxins and dibenzofurans (PCDD/Fs). Due to the characteristics of the funeral sector, the chimney heights are usually low, and the air pollutants disperse close to the ground, thus severely affecting the surrounding air quality and human health. The problem of the emissions of harmful air pollutants from cremators is causing increasing social concern.
- ii. To strengthen the control and management of pollutant emissions from cremators and incinerators, emission standards of air pollutants for crematories needs to be fixed and defined. These standards will help to regulate the emission limits of air pollutants from cremators and incinerators and will ultimately check the pollution control. These will also help in promoting the implementation of prevention and control measures in the crematories to reduce pollutant emission levels. The standards need to be specified for the emission limits of PM₁₀, PM_{2.5} and VOCs from cremators.
- iii. Previous studies on air pollutants from cremators have typically focused on the problem of emissions of PCDD/Fs and other persistent pollutants in many countries. The emission characteristics of PM₁₀, PM_{2.5} and VOCs in flue gas from cremators have seldom been reported. These pollutants have provoked increasing attention for their severe impacts on air quality, visibility and human health.

Setting Up of Animal Carcass Incineration Plant in Brahmapur for Small Animals including Supply, Installation, Operation, Maintenance and Management for 5 years

Benefits of ACIP

- i. It is a properly designed system for low Gas, Electricity, Wood consumption and having pollution control system.
- ii. Combustion efficiency is high with the use of Automatic burner in Gas furnace, Heating Elements in Electrical Furnace & Reflector in wood furnace pre-heated air & Cremation in Controlled Condition. The smoke that comes out carries low SPM which are trapped in Scrubber and then flue gases release to environment through chimney.
- iii. Cremation time is less
- iv. This is a very neat & clean eco-friendly System & Free from any pollution hazards
- v. Reduces De-forestation and Risk of Global warming

3. Components of a GAS CREMATORIUM

A. LPG Gas Crematorium consists of :

1. Cremation Furnace
2. LPG Gas Combustion System with Venture Scrubber
3. Chimney
4. Controls
5. The LPG gas automatic burners are built with fan, motor, pump, ignition transformer and electrode, flame sensor, sequence controller, gas solenoid valve, air pressure switch and gas pressure switch

B. Functioning of Gas Crematorium :

- iv. A movable trolley places the body in the cremation platform in cremation furnace of the LPG Gas Crematorium.
- v. Combustion blowers and air blowers are switched on and then the primary and secondary burners in the cremation chambers switched on to get the furnace temperature at about 850 degree.
- vi. By the movable trolley the body will be placed upon the cremation platform in the cremation chamber. The cremation door would then keep closed in the LPG Gas Crematorium.
- vii. LPG Gas Crematorium consists of primary and secondary chambers.
- viii. The LPG Gas crematorium is built with double chamber cremation furnace with a strong cremation bed and secondary air holes. The cremation furnace is constructed with high quality alumina refractory bricks, fire bricks, insulation bricks, arch bricks, various size and types of slabs and bonded with high quality castable, fire clay and mortars with a specific type of curing to the furnace to withstand the temperature up to 1200 degree centigrade.
- ix. The body, would incinerate in the primary and the secondary chamber between the temperature 850 and 1100 degree and the cremation get completed in about 60 to 90 minutes maximum depend upon the body size and other biological reasons.
- x. Gas Cleaning System is also equipped with venture scrubber.
- xi. The hazardous gas and other substances are piped out from cremation chamber and cleaned by venture scrubber with water treatment and finally the hot air is being discharged into the chimney.
- xii. LPG Gas Crematorium system has the ash collection system to collect ash and remains for further customs.
- xiii. LPG Gas Crematorium system has necessary controls, auto on-off, cut off switches and other necessary controls for a safety LPG gas crematorium.

- xiv. The automatic LPG gas burners can be hooked with external control signal for total automation like PLC system, burner trip signal for alarm and hooter can be given from the burner sequence controller and burner fan can be by passed with a separate switch without any modification.

1. Incineration Process:

The incineration process for animal waste involves subjecting the waste to high temperatures within specialized incinerators. The waste is burned at temperatures typically ranging from 800 to 1,200 degrees Celsius (1,472 to 2,192 degrees Fahrenheit). The high temperatures ensure complete combustion, effectively sterilizing the waste and reducing it to ash.

2. Air Pollution Control:

Incineration releases emissions into the atmosphere, including gases and particulate matter. To mitigate the environmental impact, animal waste incinerators are equipped with advanced air pollution control systems. These systems incorporate technologies like scrubbers, filters, and electrostatic precipitators to minimize the release of pollutants into the air.

3. Regulatory Compliance:

The operation of animal waste incinerators is subject to regulatory guidelines imposed by government agencies, such as the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) or local authorities. These regulations typically address waste handling, storage, incineration processes, and emissions control to ensure compliance with environmental and health standards.

Applications: Incineration of large dead animals, Poultry animals /birds infected from Bird Flu Disease or death, Farm animals infected from infectious diseases or death, Animal Carcasses from Slaughter houses, Experimental or research Animals, Animals from farms and zoo.

Design: Floor-standing, Moveable bed/Hearth Trolley, Mobile Incinerator.

Material of Construction: Heavy Duty Steel.

Refractory and Insulation: Insulated and Refractory lined chambers.

Combustion: Post/Secondary Chamber 2 seconds residence time design.

Feeding: Fully automated animal waste feeding system (Manual feeding option also available)

Air Pollution Control System: Wet Venturi Scrubbing System/Dry Scrubbing System.

Ash removal: Automatic ash removal system.

Temperature range: Min. 850°C, Max. 1250 °C.

Burning fuel: Diesel, LPG, Natural Gas, Electrical

Emission: Incinerator should achieve International regulation such as Indian, EPA, UAE, Egyptian, EU 2000/76/EC (or 2010/75/EU).
